George Washington
Said to the Father:
"I CANNOT TELL A LIE"
HARTLEY
Says to the Father:
"I CAN TELL A LIE, BUT I WILL NOT!"

Please notice the difference in the character of the two men and give your decision as to which deserves the most credit. George COULD NOT TELL A LIE. Now, if a man cannot tell a lie, do you think he should have as much credit as one that CAN LIE AND WILL NOT? I make this statement for the reason that I propose to make some startling statements in regard to Pictures and Picture-Making and "GIVE AWAY" some of the [illegible] games played in these galleries. I shall stand ready to prove every statement.

First—I am making as good (if not better) Cabinet Photos as are made anywhere at any price. I do not make but a small margin on each dozen. I do not believe that a man should make enough on one dozen to pay rent for a week.

REMEMBER,
82
Pays for 12 Cabinets and 1 Panel.
83
Pays for 12 Cabinets and 6 Panels. Any size to suit you.

I wish to say a few words in regard to my new PERMANENT LIFE-SIZE PORTRAIT AND HANDSOME FRAME for $10.

Crayon artists are "kicking." They say that my picture is not as good as a free-hand drawing. I say some crayon artists tell the public they do not use a photograph and charge for a free-hand drawing, and have and use a camera in the back room. They make a photograph and cover it up with crayon. No man can compete with the camera in making a perfect drawing.

In England were an earth today he could not get $10 per week in any gallery in Chicago, and if he should charge his name to Jones and make drawings for a living he could not compete with a Big camera can by a boy with three months' experience.

REMEMBER,
$10
Pays for Permanent Life-Size Portrait and Handsome Frame. Good as any Crayon made.

To any man who will tell
WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO.
Which hand is the best one under all circumstances,
One of Brokaw Bros.' $27.00 Overcoats,

"Duration," will be sold for $27. We have in our store 400 of these Overcoats, just this one kind. "Why," you will see twice, maybe three times as many new clothes at Willoughby, Hill & Co.'s as at any other store.

REMEMBER, before you make a your choice elsewhere that WE HATE TIE GOODS. Very seldom do we lose a customer. Our Clothing Trade was never so great before in September. Our Custom Tailoring Department is also doing a great trade, gaining every season for eight years. Our goods are worth NO MORE than our price, but they are worth OUR PRICE, and in the end it will pay you to BE shown ALL kinds of goods that HATE TO BE FORCED. There is always something the matter with such goods, and they don't pay. $500,000 worth of new Clothes, Hats, and Furnishing Goods bought FOR CASH AND PAID FOR, by the solid, safe house of Willoughby, Hill & Co.

The "Earth" may "Quake" and shake down the store of Willoughby, Hill & Co., but no man will lose a dollar by

CAUTION!

Against fraudulent marks and spurious imitations. The extraordinary beauty and excellence of the Dr. Jaeger's Woolen Fabrics, especially Underwear, have been so promptly recognized and the Garments so eagerly sought that imitations and adulterations, closely resembling the genuine, have already been put upon the market. The public is therefore warned against purchasing goods which are not imported by us, as we have the exclusive control, and all genuine articles must come from us and have our trade-mark. At the present time the genuine Dr. Jaeger goods, with our trade-mark,

ARE NOT TO BE FOUND IN ANY DRY-GOODS STORE IN THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

The Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Woolen Underwear

Asserts its superiority in climatic changes. The double front and exclusion of cool draughts by opening on shoulder prevent the possibility of danger to the vital organs.

And as wholesome and valued by the manufacturer and proprietor,

HARRIET HUBBARD AYER,
No. 37 Union Square, New York City.

The original of the following letter may be seen at my Union Square office, No. 37 Union Square:

DEAR MRS. AYER:

I had given up ever having anything for a freckle skin long ago, as others I can remember, and I am sure your cream is the only thing that has ever done the slightest little good on my face, and I had tried every known remedy, including that awful invention, a complexion mask, under which I nearly suffocated in order to be sure enough to get rid of my wretched, fair to see pest; in fact I seemed to be made eastern every; I purchased a jar of Recamier Cream from your agent here, and, as much as I do the opposite of trying everything offered me for the skin, I read the little pamphlet and was incredulous; however, I diligently followed the directions, including the bathing with the hot and cold water. It is a little over a month since I bought the Recamier Cream—and if you were or see me today you would wonder that I ever had needed such remedy. I have not a spot or blemish on my face. As the slightest sign of redness or irritation I apply the cream, and in an hour or two the inflammation is entirely gone. I shall so make sure the "Recamier" will continue to be in the market, as in case it should not be, I shall be in a supply to last me the remainder of my natural life. Seriously, dear Mrs. Ayer, you have conferred an immeasurable benefit on the old-round and equally dazed women of our day, and they are innumerable. I can no longer no longer to belong to the ranks of they of the unlovely complexions, and take the greatest pleasure in attesting to the merits of the Cream. I am quite willing you should show this letter to any one who desires to see it, but please do not print it with signature. Yours most gratefully, L. M. L.
